THE VINDICATOR

Of the Ancient Order and Self-denying Principles of the Church, as taugnt by the Savior and held forth by the Fathers of our Fraternity.

"I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE." (St. John 14:6)

Thus saith the Lord, stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls.

VOL. LXXXII Covington, Ohio, January, 1951 No. 1

THINGS NEW AND OLD

With the New Year, The Old, Sure refuge still,
Our Father ruling on His throne above!
He guides the nations by His sovereign will,
He bears His people on His wings of love,
Thy gracious care through all the past we see,
The unknown future we can leave with Thee.

With the New Year grant a New blessing, Lord!
Still unexhausted is Thy bounteous hand;
Roses shall bloom, if Thou dost give the Word,
And fountains murmur, in the desert land.
Thy blessing fills the basket and the store;
Give as Thou seeth good—we ask no more.

With the New Year old burdens still of care—
The year of Jubilee is not yet come;
Still must we nerve our hearts, to do or bear,
Pilgrims and strangers on the journey home.
Not here our rest—to trial yet and toil
We must go forward, through life's "little while."

With the New Year New Hopes, for earth and heaven!
Fair Nature's summer beauties shall return,
And to us, also, sunshine shall be given—
Our Father's children do not always mourn;
New gifts of Love, Hope in the future sees,
And far beyond them "greater things than these."

NEW AND OLD

With the New Year, The Old, Dear, merge still,
Our Father ruling on His throne above!
He guides the nations by His sovereign will.
He bears His people on His wings of love.
Thy gracious care through all the past we see,
The unknown future we can leave with Thee.

With the New Year grant a New blessing, Lord!
Still reconsecrated to Thy bounteous hand;
Hearts shall burn, if Thou dost give the Word,
And benighted heathen, in the desert land,
Thy blessing fills the basket and the store;
Give as Thou wealth good—we ask no more.

With the New Year old burdens still of care—
The year of Jubilee is not yet come;
Still must we serve our hearts, to do or bear,
Fighting and clinging as the journey home.
Not here our rest—to trial yet and toil
We must go forward, through life's "little while."

With the New Year New Hopes, for earth and heaven!
Fair Nature's summer beauties shall return,
And to us, also, sunshine shall be given—
Our Walker's children do not always mourn;
New gifts of Love, Hope in the future pass,
And far beyond them "greater things than these."

REPP—Sister Lavenia (Diehl) Repp was born September 27, 1858 and departed this life November 28, 1950, aged 92 years. Her companion, Brother Daniel Repp, died about ten years ago. Since then she made her home with her children. Recently and at the time of her death, Sister Repp lived with her daughter Grace and son-in-law, Brother George Stansbury, who cared for her tenderly in her declining years.

Surviving are three daughters and three son's: Sister Grace Stansbury, Sister Carrie Fleagle, Mary Repp, Brother Cleveland Repp, Alva Repp and Robert Repp, also five grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren together with one brother, Samuel E. Diehl.

Sister Lavenia truly lived an exemplary life, having been a member of the Old German Baptist church for many years, quietly and faithfully performing whatever fell to her lot, being interested in the welface of the church and contributing to its glory by her meek and pleasing manner, continually displaying that shining light which is demanded of all professing Christians. There is evident fruitfulness from her way of life found in some of those who most intimately looked to her for guidance and hope remains that others may yet profit by heeding her good counsel.

Funeral services were conducted by the brethren at the home of Brother Stansbury. Graveside services held at Beaver Dam cemetery where she rests awaiting the resurrection morn.

STRITE—Brother Frederick Strite, the oldest visit brother in the Antietam District, passed from this life October 19th aged 90 years. One brother, Brother Abram Strite, a son and two daughter's also a grand daughter, survive. His companion preceded him in death by four years.

Before many of us can remember it, Brother Fred entered his Master's service by uniting with the Old German Baptist Church and in his younger years was chosen to the deacon's office. While mentioned frequently, it is especially true that he was most zealous and steadfast in his church relation, both in his office and wherever duty called. He walked many, many miles to attend church services and there were few times throughout his life that he was not there. His great delight was singing and for years many of us were led into the spirit of this part of the service by following his tunes.

He was engaged in farming most of his life, later being employed in local industries. Although being totally blind for several years, with an undimmed eye of faith he looked forward hopefully in anticipation of gaining that reward promised all faithful ones.

To show obediences and to avail himself of every means provided for his spiritual welface he requested anointing and thereafter remained fully resigned to the will of the Lord.

Funeral by the brethren at Prices church after which his body was placed in the adjoining cemetery to await the Lord's call.

CABANISS—Blanche, youngest child of Aaron and Eliza Jane Mikesell, was born near Eaton, Preble County, Ohio, August 29th, 1888. When she was a young child about two years old her Father died, and she was taken into the home of Daniel and Mary Eikenberry, near Camden, Ohio, where she grew to womanhood.

On April 18th, 1907 she was united in Holy Matrimony to William Lee Cabaniss. To this union five children were born, two little daughters, Martha and Mary, preceeded their Mother to their long Home.

In 1920 she joined the church of her choice and was baptized into the Old German Baptist Faith in the Bear Creek District by Eld. Phillip Miller, which Faith she espoused through Life.

She was good and kind to everyone, always willing to help in time of need, more especially was she concerned about the welfare of her family. No task was too much, no burden too heavy, and many times did more than her failing health would permit.

She filled her place with her husband in the Deacon's Office since October 31st, 1929.

On October 30th, 1950 she suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which she never rallied. She had two nurses, Mrs. Thelda Sharr and Dorothea Howell. All was done that human hearts and hands could do, but to no avail. On Tuesday, December 5th, about 8 p.m. the call came which none but Blanche heard. She quickly answered the summons, quietly passed the Portals to the Great Beyond, at the age of 62 years, 5 months and 6 days.

She leaves to mourn: her husband; one daughter and two sons: Mrs. Joan Birchhill, Chalmers Cabaniss and William Cabaniss; one grandson, Richard Lee; one foster grand-daughter, Lynn JoDelle; one sister, Mrs. Flo Isenhour of Eaton; and one brother, Otho Mikesell. One grandson, Robert Eugene, preceeded her to the better World in 1947.

Funeral servies were held in the Bear Cr. Church; Fri. Dec. 8, 1950; at 2:00 P. M.; by Eld. N. A. Hockman, assisted by Elds. D. M. Coning, and Finley Heck. Webster Landis conducted short service at Holwager & Kolp Funeral Home, in New Lebanon, O. Text St. Mark 14:8.

Her body was laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery, Gratis, Ohio to await the Master's Call and Coming.

MILLER—Robert Miller, son of Friend Henry and Sister Martha (Mohler) Miller, was born in Stark Co., Ohio, September 13, 1943.

Bobby, as he was fondly known by all, fell a victim of the dread disease of polio-bulbar type on Thursday evening October 5, 1950 and was admitted to Altmas Hospital Saturday October 7 at 3:10 P. M., and placed in an iron lung. His condition was critical from the start and at 10:40 Monday, October 9 he quietly passed on to meet his awaiting Master, while holding his mother's hand, and expressing a desire that she might accompany him.

Little Bobby was the youngest of a family of eight children. He is survived by his father and mother, two brothers, Wayne and William; five sisters; Mrs. Eldon Kinsley, Mary Katherine, Dorothy, Ruby, and Bernice. Also his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Miller and his maternal grandparents, Eld. Amos and Sister Nannie Mohler.

His earthly pilgrimage was of short duration, lasting 7 years and 26 days.

This another bud was gathered by The Lord to bloom in Heaven.

We have the blessed assurance that Bobby is safe in the Arms of Jesus, called before his life was tainted with the corruption and evil of this world.

Services consisted of a prayer in the funeral home in the presence of the parents and grandparents, only.

Short graveside services were held, in the Nimishilla Cemetery, at Mt.

Pleasant by Eld. N. A. Hockman, assisted by Eld. I. W. Mohler from Math. 18:1-5 in the presence of the family only: except his brothers and sisters, at home who could not be present because of being quarantined.

The Lord Giveth, and The Lord Taketh—Blessed be His Name.

WEST—Ida M. West of the Antietam District of Church, Waynesboro, Pa., passed from this life Nov. 18, 1950 at the age of 79 years, 6 months, and 15 days.

The most of her life was spent in the bounds of the Falling Springs District where she labored with her husband faithfully in the Deacon's Office. Her husband, William West, left her a widow fifteen years ago, and after his death she lived with her daughter.

Her last illness was brief; after a useful life to the church and those about her, she quietly passed to her rest with the people of God.

She leaves: three daughters, Mrs. Alta Stayman, Mrs. Norman Royer, and Mrs. Edna Stoop; also a number of grandchildren.

Funeral Services were conducted by the Brethren in the Browsmill Church, where her body was laid away to await the appearance of her Master whom she so devotedly served.

OVERSTREET—Charles Overstreet, son of Jeremiah and Janie Overstreet, was born Dec. 7, 1875, in the state of Indiana. He departed this life Nov. 7, 1950, in a Local Hospital, after receiving fatal injuries from an automobile accident, at the age of 75 years and 11 months.

He was united in marriage to Delana Blickenstaff, Oct. 22, 1899, in the state of Kansas. They were blessed with 12 children, 3 passing away in infancy.

Those surviving are: his loving companion; 5 sons and 4 daughters: Mrs. Ruth Jacobs, Mrs. Catherine Farrin, Robert, Edward, Betty, Paul, Jesse, and Rev. Joseph Overstreet and Eva Overstreet.

He with his family came to Modesto, Calif., in the year of 1915, and have continued to live in this community since that time.

He accepted Christ early in life and showed a great interest in his soul's salvation and concern for others. His experience and manifestation of joy and happiness in a renewed fellowship gave him more complete assurance of the promise of the Lord, and of the blessed hope. He realized that "To live was Christ, but to die was gain."

Funeral was held in the Sovern Funeral Home, which was well attended by the members and many friends, conducted by Elder W. A. Heinrich and the undersigned.

Orlando Blickenstaff

Amid the congenial surroundings of a modest country home, Elder Edwin E. Hyre, son of Amos and Mary (Denlinger) Hyre, was born on the tenth day of February, 1871, a few miles distant from the city of Dayton, Ohio.

As the early years of childhood quickly passed, he grew to the stature of a strong young man, engaging in various activities expected of a boy living in an agricultural community. When the years of maturity arrived, he made the acquaintance of a fair young maiden by the name of Susie A. Eichelberger who had been living with kind friends nearby since the unexpected death of her mother, and in due course of time they joined hand in Holy Wedlock on October 4, 1896. This union remained unbroken until mother was called to the Spirit World on January 18, 1917, leaving an infant son of twelve days and seven other children in father's care. The sorrow of parting was soothed somewhat by the previous consecration of their lives to the service of the Lord, being born anew into the Kingdom of God by the sacred rite of baptism, in the Lower Stillwater district of The Old German Baptist Church. The Lord working through the members of this fraternal body, called them to the Christian ministry on February 11, 1914, in which cause they labored faithfully according to the talent given from above.

Feeling the grave responsibilities of caring for a family of children without the aid of a needed companion, father united in marriage of Emma D. Beeghly in the month of June, 1918, and they were later blessed with the birth of an infant daughter. As the years came and went, the toils of laboring on the farm became more burdensome and they reluctantly decided to move to a small propetry in Ft. McKinley, Ohio, and later to the home of a stepdaughter, Mrs. Edward Lair, living near New Carlisle, Ohio, where his second companion fell asleep in Jesus on July 4, 1945.

Being unable to live alone in his own residence, father moved to the home of a son and daughter-in-law, Jesse and Mary Hyre, where he lived until the urgency of failing health necessitated his removal to the Virginia Rest Home, Dayton, Ohio, in February, 1948. All that loving hands could do in willing service for his needs could not restore lost eyesight nor stay the inevitable hour of departure for the better world on High, and he peacefully answered the summons of the Beckoning Angel early in the morning of November 10, 1950, a short while before the break of day, at the age of 79 years and 9 months. The afternoon of his last day on this earth was spent in singing the sweet refrains:—

Farewell, vain world, I'm going home.
My Savior smiles and bids me come;
Bright Angels beckon me away,
To sing God's praise in endless day!

And then the call came to come to the "Happy Land" where, " . . . the former things have all passed away."

Mourning his departure are 9 children, namely:— Mrs. Emma Smith, Mrs. Sylvia Wetzel, Mrs. Edith Zeisert, Jesse W. Hyre, Richard E. Hyre, Orville Hyre, Floyd L. Hyre, Russell A. Hyre and Mrs. Geneva M. Grover; 2 stepdaughters:— Mrs. Edward Lair and Mrs. Elmer Harer; 1 brother and 3 sisters:— Wilmer Hyre, Miss Jennie Hyre, Miss Orpha Hyre and Mrs. David Mohler; 12 grandchildren; 3 great-grandchildren; 4 step-grandchildren; and other relatives and friends.

Comforting, indeed, on this occasion are the words of ancient Job, " . . . the Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

Impressive funeral services were held by the brethren on November 14, to a sympathizing assembly convened at the Lower Stillwater church. St. John 11:28 and Romans 8:18 were the scriptures used, with interment in the church cemetery nearby. Tested faith gives the blessed assurance that all the combined forces of the earth cannot hold the turf-sealed tomb when the trump of God sounds to call the righteous forth to meet the Lord in the air, to be with the Lord for evermore!

Her stay here was of short duration, but long enough to endear herself to her devoted parents, who with a little brother, Forest, Jr. and 2 grand-

All that loving hands could do was of no avail, and her spirit took its flight to God who gave it.

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and His apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. John M. Brubaker

With eager expenctancy, Raymond M. and Sarah A. (Brosey) Baker looked forward to the birth of an infant son on the summer day of June 14, 1922. Overjoyed with his timely arrival at their modest country home in Darke County, O., they readily agreed to name the small babe, David John Baker.

When school days arrived a few years later, David was enrolled as a first grade pupil at Palestine, which was a little country town nearby. Leading the usual life of a rural boy, he learned to master the various problems that arose and remained in the vicinity of his birthplace until called to active duty in the armed forces of the U. S. A. in the month of September, 1942. As the dark clouds of strife began to lift from the world horizon, his services were no longer needed and he was honorably discharged on February 13, 1946, after serving twenty-two months overseas.

David once again began to look forward to further perparing himself for a normal civilian life, and took an additional two year schooling at Del Mar College, Corpus Christi, Texas. Feeling the need of spiritual sustenance, he affiliated himself with the First Baptist Church.

The kindred ties at home in the North exerted a stronger influence than his southern environment, and David accordingly came back to the home of his parents in June, 1950, to assist with the discharge of the family duties. This resolve was made after experiencing the joy, at different times, of traveling many miles across the country to be with loved ones.

Quite suddenly, through accidental means, his youthful life was closed in mid-afternoon, December 30, 1950, at the age of 28 years, 6 month, and 16 days.

Mourning his passing are his courageous mother and afflicted father; two brothers, Paul S. and Richard. W. Baker; one sister, Lois A. Baker; an aged grandmother, Lillie Brosey; uncles; aunts; one nephew; two nieces; and other relatives and friends.

Thus as the year of 1950 closes, David's book of life is sealed by One above who, " . . . knoweth how to do all things well!"

Sympathizing brethren, relatives, and friends convened at the Miller Funeral Home in Greenville for the funeral services at two p.m., January 2. Scriptural lesson used by the brethren was taken from Job 10:12, "Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit." Interment was made in the Miller Grove cemetery.

STITELY—Elder David W. Stitely of the Beaver Dam Church District, Frederick Co., Md., passed away Dec. 10, 1950, at the age of 74 years, and 27 days, after an illness over a period of years which he endured with much patience and resignation.

He was a valued laborer and servant in the Beaver Dam Church for quite a number of years, where no task was too great nor too small that his services were not freely given. To which, we are quite sure, can be attested to by many who were cared for in his church relationship, and in his home where there was always an open door to those in need.

He was an active and an interested member of the Old German Baptist Church and a familar person to many of our Brotherhood, having attended all the Annual Meetings in the last sixty years or more, except the last one. He was especially known for his unassuming attitude in his work in the Church.

He will be much missed in his home, in the neighborhood, in the Church at Beaver Dam, and in adjoining districts.

He was the son of Elder Issac P. Stitely and grandson of Elder David Stitely.

Surviving are his wife, Catherine Royer Stitely, who so faithfully cared for him in his last illness; 3 sons, J. Earl, Donald G. and Clarence J.; 1 daughter, Mrs. Mary Smith; 6 grandchildren; 5 great-grandchildren; and the following sisters, Mrs. Oscar Singer, Mrs. Ira Grossnickle, Mrs. Elsie Strine, and Mrs. Nellie Albaugh.

He was married the second time; his first wife was Grace Gernand who passed on 13 years ago.

Funeral services were conducted by the Brethren from the home in Johnsville, Md. and in the Beaver Dam Church where his body was laid to rest with the Fathers to await the coming of the Lord.

OBITUARIES

A RISEN SAVIOUR

Easter morning glorious day,
An angel rolled the stone away;
Our Saviour rose triumphant free,
He burst the bars of death for me.

He came salvation to impart,
He rose to play the leading part;
The keepers fell back as dead men,
When Christ our Lord arose again.

He came to show the Master's plan,
To rescue me, poor fallen man;
He came to show to mortals we,
How wondrous kind the Lord can be.

He is the Resurrection, Life,
To all who fight the Godly strife;
And will reward them when they die,
With everlasting life on high.

So why not follow Christ the Lord,
For all can have that great reward;
His promises are sure and fast,
He is our stay unto the last.

So follow Christ while here below,
And when you fall asleep you'll know;
That just as He arose one day,
His precious saints shall come that way.

"THE LITTLE FAMILY"

There was a little family
Lived up on Bethany;
Two sisters and one brother
Composed the family;
With prayer and with singing
Like Angels in the sky,
Both morning and at evening
They raised their voices high.

They lived in peace and pleasure
For many a lonely year;
And laid away their treasures
Beyond this vale of tear's;
Though poor and without money,
Their kindness was the same,
Their house was always open,
To Jesus and his friends.

Thus while they lived so happy
So poor, so kind, and good;
Their brother was afflicted
And rudely thrown a-bed.
Poor Martha and poor Mary
Looked to the Lord and cried:
But still he grew no better
And lingered on and died.

The Jews came to the sisters,
Put Lazarus in the tomb;
They came there for to comfort
To drive away their gloom.
When Jesus saw them weeping,
He fell to weeping too,
And wept untill they showed Him,
Where Lazarus was entombed.

Now if we will love Jesus,
And do His holy will;
Like Martha and like Mary
He'll always use us well.
From death He will Resurrect us,
And take us to the skies,
To live with Him forever,
Where pleasure never dies.

The Family

STONER—On December 3, 1950, the Lord answered the prayers of Amza and Esther (King) Stoner by blessing their Christian home with the birth of an infant son whom they named Amza Earl Stoner III. His beaming countenance was the very picture of vigorous health and resembled the beauty of a blooming rose. The ray of sunshine reflected by the child's sparkling eyes helped to soothe the anguish of his parent's aching hearts, which sadness had been caused by the untimely passing of a four month old daughter, Margaret Ann on October 11, 1949.

Little Amza's mission of renewed hope was not to be a reality for many days. He was stricken quite suddenly with a serious malady, and breathed his last at the Wayne Hospital, Greenville, O., on January 20, 1951, at the tender age of seven weeks.

This severance of kindred ties leaves sorrow in the hearts of father and mother; one brother, Robert; two sisters, Barbara and Blance; paternal grandparents, Amza and Bessie Stoner; maternal grandparents, Noah and Amelia Flory; uncles, aunts, cousins, and other relatives. Helping to share the grief in this hour of stress, are many fraternal brethren and sisters in the Church who are blending prayers with words of comfort, that all might look forward more eagerly to the glad reunion in heaven where joy will last for evermore.

Private services held at the Grave on January 22 for the family and several members of the church, were conducted by Bro. Floyd Hyre.

Then on account of the daughter's sickness, she was taken to grandson Ernest Wray's home, for the last 2 weeks.

While Mother's suffering was great the last 3 days, the last few hours she rested easy, and seemed to peacefully fall asleep in the arms of daughter, Alice.

How many were the silent prayers
My mother offered up for me!
How many were the bitter cares
She felt, when none but God could see!

O let me think of all she said,
And all the kind advice she gave;
And let me do it now she's dead,
And sleeping in her lowly grave.

And let me choose the path she chose,
And her I soon again may see,
Beyond this world of sin and woes,
With Jesus, in eternity. Selected

PETERS—Eld. Joel H. Peters, son of the late Wm. H. and Mary Ann (Bowman) Peters, was born in Franklin County, Va., on Oct. 17, 1895. Departed this life on Feb. 11, 1951—age 55 years, 3 months and 24 days.

On Dec. 22, 1915, he was united in Holy Wedlock with Mary Magdalene Boothe of Monroe County, W. Va To this union were born 11 children, 4 sons and 7 daughters, two of which preceded him in death in infancy. Also 19 grandchildren, two preceding him in death.

Early in life he felt the need of a Saviour and united with the Old German Baptist Church, to which faith he devoutly and zealously labored for, to the end. He was chosen to the visit in May, 1913, called to the ministry in June, 1921 and ordained to the full ministry in Nov. 1934.

Bro. Joel, as many know, was prosessed with much ability to preach the Word; and we feel his earnest labors in The Word and doctrine will not only be sadly missed in the little congregation in which he lived but that they will be greatly missed by many over our beloved brotherhood.

He was taken to the hospital Nov. 21st and was operated on Nov. 28th only to find cancer of the pancreas; doctors saying that there was not much more that they could do. However, they did replenish blood before and after he came home which seemed to revive considerably for a time. He was brought home Dec. 15th where the untiring efforts of his devoted companion and affectionate children did all that could be done for his comfort till the last. Children were all present when he passed.

He was anointed with oil according to James 5:14 the same evening of his operation.

Surviving are his companion and the following children: Pauline Bowman, Irene Fisher, J. H. Jr., Ethelene Montgomery, Annie Montgomery, David, Frances Boothe, Dennis, and Virginia at home; 3 brothers, A. N. Peters, C. W. Peters, and H. D. Peters; 3 sisters, Mrs. Ida Sink, Mrs. Lydia Layman and Mrs. Sallie Bowman; 2 half brothers: P. P. Peters, and A. C. Peters. He leaves to mourn his passing: the family, with a host of relatives, neighbors and friends.

Funeral services were held Feb. 14th at the Oak Hill Church, where he so much loved to worship, by the home brethren to a very large crowd of sympathizing members, neighbors and friends. Scriptures used: Job 14 and St. John 11. Interment in the church cemetery, there to await the Master's ROCK—Sister Rosie (Mickley) Rock passed away at the Waynesboro Hospital February 23rd, 1951, aged 61 years. She is survived by her companion, Brother Ira Rock, eight children, fifteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Our departed sister was a descendant of the Knepper family from which have come a great many German Baptist members who are scattered widely over the country.

About 40 years ago she united with the German Baptist Church and has continued a faithful and much loved member of the Antietam District. She patiently endured much physical suffering throughout her life, becoming critically sick and was admitted to the Waynesboro Hospital about a week before she died.

Shortly before passing away she requested the annointing which, being done, gave her assuring comfort and with a peaceful resignation to the Lord's will, she passed quietly into His care. Surely Sister Rosie made good preparation for this change.

"Thou has run a good race,
Thou has finished thy course,
Henceforth thy reward is in Heaven."

No remorse should be thine,
No despairing or woe,
That the spirit away has been taken—
For a mansion of peace
In God's haven we know
To the tired weary soul now is opened.

As firm as the mountains which rise
from the sea;
As true as the stars which shine o'er it:
Is the promise of Him who hath caused thee to be,
That the faithful and true are rewarded.
And if we live rightly we also shall see,
The land to which she has departed.

FLATTER—Cora M. Flatter, daughter of Wilson and Elizabeth (Kiser) Wilt, was born amid the hilly countryside surrounding Grafton, West Virginia, on Oct. 16, 1872. As time elapsed, they heard of more suitable agricultural communities in other states and accordingly migrated to Ohio during the autumn months of 1887, settling in a little country home near Greenville, O., Cora manifested an early interest in the Church and was baptized by the Old German Baptist brethren when she was 16 years of age.

Having now accepted Christ as her personal Savior, her spiritual activities were supplemented by a budding romance with Albert Flatter whom she married in the fall of 1890. Their home was made happy and cheerful by the birth of seven children which they received as a heritage of the Lord, all going well until the family ties were broken by the death of father on October 26, 1921.

The duties of caring for a family of children demanded much of mother's time, and she spent many evenings crochetting rugs until the midnight hour and later. This experience taught her the valuable lesson of constantly planning for the future, living each day in anticipation of the glorious time when the Lord would call her home to heaven.

Declining health in her elderly years brought the realization that the summons might not be far away, and she called for the annointing service on April 6, 1945. Grevious affliction necessitated her removal to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meehan, Greenville, who kindly and tenderly cared for mother over three years until she passed into eternity on March 13, 1951, at the age of 78 years, 4 months, and 25 days.

WORRE—Olav Knutsen Worre was born January 6, 1908, near Kepervick, Norway and passed away March 25, 1951, at the age of 43 years, 2 months and 19 days.

He was united in marriage to Mary Alice Ramsey, January 20, 1933, spending most of his time in California working at dredging until the last two years when sickness overtook him which later caused his death. She united with the Old German Baptist Church in May 1912, and lived a faithful member until death. Her place in church was seldom vacant although she had been in failing health for the past twelve years.

Three weeks before she passed away she called for the elders of the Church and was annointed with oil in the name of the Lord, from which she received much comfort during the remaining days of her life.

She was stricken with a stroke on March 8, and gradually failed until her spirit took its flight on March 30.

She bore her suffering with great patience and her thoughts were always of others even to the end. Her greatest desire was to join her companion, whose loss she deeply grieved. Her last words to the grandchildren were to be faithful to the Church.

She was of a very generous disposition, a kind and loving mother and grandmother; ever ready to help anyone in time of need. She will be sadly missed in the Home, the Church and by all who knew her.

Many years ago she felt the need of a Savior and became a member of the Old German Baptist Church in which faith she remained faithful and true. OBITUARIES

SHE IS NOT DEAD

Oh! call it not death—it is life begun,
For the waters are passed, the home is won;
The ransomed spirit hath reached the shore
Where they weep, and suffer, and sin no more.
She is safe in her Father's house above
In the home prepared by her Savior's love;
To depart from a world of sin and strife,
And to be with Jesus—yes, this is life.

Oh! call it not death—'tis a holy sleep,
And the precious dust the Lord doth keep,
She shall wake again—and now satisfied
With the likeness of Him, who for her died.
As He rose again, she shall also rise,
From the quiet bed, where now safe she lies;
Then cheer me fond mourner's who sadly weep,
For happy are they who in Jesus sleep.

Oh! call it not death—'tis glorious rest,
"Yea saith the Spirit," for all such are blest,
"They rest from their labors," their work is done,
The goal is attained, the weary race run.
The battle is fought—the struggle is o'er,
The crown now replaces the cross they bore,
The pilgrimage path shall no more be trod,
"A rest remaineth for the people of God."

Oh! call it not death—it is true indeed,
The soul from the shackles of earth is freed,
'Tis true that dissolved is the house of clay,
And the spirit unchained hath passed away.
'Tis true, too, the loved one hath gone before,
The home now darkened that knows her no more.
He chides not your grief, for Jesus, too, wept
O'er the grave where His friend Laz'rus slept

But call it not death—a few short days o'er
Ye shall meet her in glory, to part no more.
What a "blessed hope," Lo! Christ shall appear
For "the restitution of all things" here.
Then (if not till then) ye'll see her again.
When brought by the Lord with His glorious train,
Those "sleeping in Jesus" shall be restored,
"And so shall we ever be with the Lord."

GARRISON—Clarinda (Clara) Cole Garrison was born in Darke County, Ohio, on July 31, 1864. She was the fourth child of a family of eight children born to Daniel and Acha Puderbaugh Fryar and amid the influence of this family life she spent her childhood days and grew to young womanhood.

In the spring of 1887, on April 17th, she was united in bonds of holy matrimony to Joseph N. Garrison. Under the merices of God they were permitted to enjoy a long and fruitful life together, being blessed with 5 children, who are:—Mrs. Earl Loy, Mrs.

George Rogers, Mrs. John King, Paul and his twin sister, Esther, who entered the Great Beyond at the tender age of 15 months.

They spent their entire married life in the vicinity of her birth, sharing the experiences of life together for fifty years. This union then was broken as the messenger of death came to Father on November 24th, 1937.

In 1890 she made the great choice of life when she accepted her Savior and was baptized into the Old German Baptist Church. She was a living example of her faith, being greatly concerned about the teachings of Christ and the welfare of souls. She loved to attend church services, and would go many times when her health would hardly permit.

Mother enjoyed the things of life about her to the full. She never ceased to marvel at the great changes and the amazing inventions and progress which had taken place during her long lifetime. Yet above all, she realized these were but transitory things and the real life lay beyond that time when the Great Change should come to her.

Since Father's death, she made her home with her children where her constant concern was for the enjoyment and welfare of the little folks around her. She seemed to have an understanding heart: their problems were her problems and thus she bridged over the gap of years and endeared herself to all about her. One of her outstanding characteristics was thinking of others, and she spent many hours sewing and doing deeds of kindness.

During her last illness she was an example of patient suffering. She would say, "I have nothing to complain of; The Lord has been better to me than I deserve." Her strong abiding faith was with her to the last as she looked beyond the confines of this life and longed to go to her reward in Heaven. A few weeks ago she called for the elders of the Church and received the sacred rite of anointing which gave her great consolation, saying afterward her mind was eased and she could rest better. Soon after the midnight hour on May 6th, she answered the summons from on high and peacefully passed on to eternity, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Rogers. Age 86 years, 9 months, and 6 days.

She leaves to mourn her departure: her children, 3 daughters and 1 son; 16 grandchildren; 1 foster grandchild; 25 great-grandchildren; five foster great-grandchildren; 2 great-great-grandchildren; (in addition to these there were 1 grandchild and 2 great-grandchildren who preceded her in death) also she has 2 sisters living: Mrs. Elnora Replogle and Mrs. Mattie Miller both of Greenville, O.; and many other relatives and friends who will greatly miss her cheerful presence. Yet amid our grevious loss, our hope is in the Christ whom she so fully trusted.

Funeral services were held in the Covington Church, Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, conducted by Elder Levi Bowman, assisted by Elder Floyd Hyre and Elder C. J. Rumble. The 23rd Psalm was read with text from Rev. 14:13.

Sweeter than sweetest music,
Finer than poet's art,
This promise of His that nestles
Like summer in my heart;
Out of the strife eternal,
Striving for daily bread—
"Let not your heart be troubled,
Nor let it be afraid."

O wandering one and homeless,
This is the Father's grace—
"Let not your heart be troubled,
I go to prepare a place."
Solemnly some sweet morning
Shall dawn the eternal peace,
When safe in His many mansions
Thy wanderings shall cease.

It comes as a gentle shower,
As the patter of cooling rain,
In the dust of life's lonely highway,
To quiet the heart of pain.
It comes as a blessed presence
In the silence of midnight's dread—
"Let not your heart be troubled,
Nor let it be afraid."

No threat for the wrong committed,
No word for the task undone,
But only the dear God's pity,
Loving us every one.
Only the Father's promise
Of home, when the day is dead,
Where the heart shall be no more troubled,
The soul no more be afraid.

THE GOLDEN THREAD

Life has been weaving a pattern for us,
Some colors are warm and some cold.
Dear friends have changed the pattern, thus
They have woven in a thread of gold.

Friends will remember; friends will forget us.
But the ones whose memories we cherish and hold,
Are the ones who stay through thick and thin
And help to weave in the thread of gold.

The gold of the earth is nothing but dross,
When, by faith, we that city behold
And think of the friends, with memory dear
That helped change the pattern; the thread of gold.

When Friends have forsaken and left us alone
And life all it's sorrows and troubles unfold;
We thank our Heavenly Father for friends,
That brightened our life, with the thread of gold.

As time goes on and God's will is done;
When our days are numbered and we are growing old;
We ask God to bless you, for your helping hand,
In brightening the pattern, with the thread of gold.

The time will come, when life's work is done
And the pattern has changed to bright joy untold;
We ask God that we may all meet over there
And have all for our friends, in that CITY OF GOLD.

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and His apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a reunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. OBITUARIES

BEAUTIFUL HANDS

Such beautiful, beautiful hands!
They were neither white nor small;
And you, I know, would scarcely think
That they were fair at all.

I've looked on hands whose form and hue
A sculptor's dream might be;
Yet were those aged, wrinkled hands
Most beautiful to me.

Such beautiful, beautiful hands!
Though heart were weary or sad,
Those patient hands kept toiling on
That children might be glad.

I almost weep as, looking back
To childhood's distant day,
I think how those hands rested not
When mine were at their play.

But Oh! beyond the shadow land,
Where all is bright and fair,
I know full well those dear old hands
Will palms of victory wear.

Where crystal streams, through endless time,
Flow over golden sands,
And where the old grow young again,
I'll clasp my Mother's hands.

THE WILL OF GOD

Thou sweet, beloved will of God,
My anchor ground, my fortress hill,
My spirit's silent, fair abode,
In thee I hide me and am still.

O Thou, that willest good alone,
Lead Thou the way—Thou guidest best;
A little child, I follow on,
And trusting, lean upon thy breast.

Thy beautiful, sweet will, my God,
Holds fast in its sublime embrace
My captive will, a gladsome bird,
Prisoned in such a realm of grace.

Within this place of certain good,
Love evermore expands her wings,
Or nestling in Thy perfect choice,
Abides content with what it brings.

Oh, lightest burden, sweetest yoke,
It lifts, it bears my happy soul,
It giveth wings to this poor heart;
My freedom is Thy grand control.

Upon God's will I lay me down,
As child upon its mother's breast;
No silken couch, nor softest bed,
Could ever give me such deep rest.

Thy wonderful, grand will, my God,
With triumph now I make it mine;
And faith shall cry a joyous Yes!
To every dear command of Thine.

BOYD—Bertha Mae Boyd, daughter of William and Elizabeth Horst, was born near North Hampton Ohio, August 4th, 1885. Passed away at her home near Bringhurst, Indiana July 5th, 1951. Age 65 years, 11 months. When only a small child, her parents moved to Kansas, where she resided until she was married to Ira Boyd in 1910, then going to Nebraska to live. When only a girl of 14 years of age, she became a member of the Old German Baptist Church, and remained a faithful member until death. During her 50 years of Church life, she never missed a Comunion in her home congregation, until she became afflicted about two years ago. vived by six children: Sister Ruth, at home; Bro. Delmar, Bro. Walter, Elva Cotner and Bro. Edward and Calvin at home; 8 grandchildren; a Stepmother of Garnett, Kans.; two Brothers, Sam Horst, and Irven Horst; a half brother Clarence Horst; one half sister, Lilly Riley; besides many other relatives.

MARCONETT—Andrew, son of John and Phebe Marconett, was born June 11, 1862, in Highland Co., O. He departed this life March 5, 1951 at the home of his granddaughter Waneta Graybill, Goshen, Ind., at the age of 88 years, 8 months, and 22 days.

He was the oldest of 12 children. He was united in marriage to Ellen Sheets. Nov. 7, 1886, and to this union 2 daughters and 2 sons were born, the oldest little son passed away at 21 months, and the youngest daughter passed away May 26, 1942. This companion died April 25, 1898.

He was again united in marriage to Amanda Dale, Nov. 1, 1899. To this union were born 4 children: 3 daughters and 1 son. One little daughter passed away at 23 month and 12 days.

Surviving are his loving companion, and 5 children: Neosha, wife of George Boyd, Ora, Phebe, wife of Albert Royer, Samuel, and Mary, wife of Walter Baker; 16 grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; 5 brothers: David, Warren, Amiel, Dan, and Aaron; 1 sister, Mary E. McClellan.

He was of the Old Brethren German Baptist Faith, being baptized at 21 years. He was elected to the Deacon's office near the age of 30, and soon afterward to the ministry, and to the eldership in 1913, having served the church faithfully as long as health permitted.

He bore his afflictions with great patience; for three years he was nearly helpless, and blind. He called for the elders and was anointed according to the command, so we grieve not as for one that has no hope.

He was a kind husband and father, and leaves to mourn their loss many relatves and friends. One of the songs he liked to sing was, "Oh when shall I see Jesus? and dwell with Him above?" Hymns sang at services were: 425, 494, 403, and 389.

May we never forget his loving smile and good counsel.

SPILLERS—Lizzie Ingle Spillers, daughter of Henry and Ellen (Wirt) Ingle, was born on April 5, 1880, in the Bear Creek community, near Ridgeville, Ind. and crossed the river of death on June 22, 1951, at Randolph County Hospital in Winchester, Indiana. She passed away after a two month's illness, and three weeks following surgery, at the age of 71 years, 2 months, and 17 days.

She was united in marriage to Ernest Spillers December 1, 1900 and was a devoted wife for over fifty years.

She was baptized into the Old German Baptist Church at the youthful age of twelve years and proved a faithful member until called to her reward.

Four weeks before her death she called for the anointing as was insructed by the Apostle James. This gave her much comfort and strength to endure her affliction with great patience for the few remaining days of her life.

She leaves to mourn her departure: a devoted husband; a daughter, Esther Skiles; two grandsons, Keith and Ivan Skiles; a brother, James C. Ingle; a sister, Lovernia Boone; nephews; neices; and a host of friends. She was preceded in death by a brother, George, and a granddaughter, Wanda Coleen Skiles.

She seemingly was endowed with inexhaustible patience which she had frequent cause to exercise as she spent much of her life in caring for the aged. Though her last days were filled with suffering, she never complained for fear of worrying the family. She was indeed a shining light and an example worthy to be followed.

Funeral services were held Sunday, June 24, 2:30 p. m., at the Deerfield Methodist meeting house, by the Brethren, from St. Mark 14:8, to an overflowing and attentive congregation. Burial at the Woodlawn cemetery near Farmland, Indiana.

DIVERS—Carrie (Huffman), daughter of Elias B. and Addie S. Huffman, was born in Roanoke County, Va., in the Peters Creek Congregation, on May 25, 1893. She died on June 25, 1951, age: 58 years, and 1 month.

She united with the Old German Baptist Church early in life, and ever held the vows and promises sacred she made when she entered into fellowship.

She was united in marriage to Joseph P. Divers in Dec. 22, 1915. To this union were born 6 children: Bro. Elmer, Roy, Bro. Charles, Mrs. Lucy Jacobs, Mrs. Esther Jacobs, and another son, who died in infancy.

She was much concerned about her children and set them a good example, and I am sure if she sould speak today, she would warn her children and others as well, to prepare to meet her in a better world; as death oftentimes comes without much warning.

Sister Carrie began failing June 21, and it was soon noticed she was partially paralyzed. All that a loving husband, children, and doctor could do was to no avail and she gradually grew worse until she passed away.

She leaves: her grief stricken husband and children; 1 brother, Bro. O. H. Huffman; 2 sisters, Sister J. M. Ronk and Sister C. P. Perdieu; and many other relatives and friends to mourn their loss which we have reason to believe is her eternal gain.

Funeral by the brethren at Peters Creek Church to a large assembly of sympathizing friends. Burial in cemetery near the Church.

She hath done what she could.

THE LORD KNOWS WHY

I may not know the reason why
Dark clouds so often veil the sky;
But though my sea be smooth or rough,
The Lord knows why, and that's enough.

I may not know why I am led
So often in the paths I dread,
But, trusting Him I'll press my way;
The Lord knows why—I will obey.

I may not know why death should come,
To take the dear ones from my home;
But, though mine eyes with tears be dim,
The Lord knows why—I'll trust in Him.

So, though I may not understand
The leadings of my Father's hand,
I'll know to all He has the key—
He understands each mystery.

O yes, He knows, the Lord knows why!
These things are ordered from on high;
And though dark clouds may hide the sun,
The Lord knows why—His will be done.

CAYLOR—Clara Mae Caylor younger daughter of Frank and Matilda (Freeze) Caylor was born November 14, 1919, in Dayton, Ohio.

She attended the Jackson Elementary School and graduated from Roosevelt High School in Dayton, Ohio with the Class of 1937.

Shortly after her graduation she found employment at the Delco Plant in Dayton; and was later employed by the Dayton Power and Light Company remaining in their employ until forced to retire because of failing health.

On September 26, 1940 she was recieved into the Old German Baptist Church by baptism; and has remained an outstanding example of Christian Faith throughout her suffering and lingering illness; giving many a hungry soul light and guidance to the fuller and richer Faith in God and His Precious Promises by the Christian Fortitude she ever manifested to all.

On July 4, 1945 she was forced to retire from active employment being stricken with the dread disease of tuberculosis which was further augmented with a back injury sustained in an auto ride. After a years treatment some improvement was noted, and she was able to attend church services which gave her much comfort. However the ravages of the disease had left it's imprint and on September 11, 1947 she again took her bed and was relieved only by the beckoning of Her Master.

On October 24, 1947 she called for the Elders of The Church and was Anointed with Oil in The Name of The Lord, with results that portrayed the Miraculous Power of God in that improvement was noted that caused the Doctors to marvel and attributed it to God's Direction.

Later desiring the blessings and provisions of Christ for His faithful followers, a home Communion was held for her, which gave her such strengthening of her Spirit as is rarely witnessed.

Throughout her long illness her Spirit was oft refreshed by her many friends coming to her room with cheerful song service and the holding of worship services at her bedside, until there was a virtual portrayal of Christ's language to His Apostles, "I have meat to eat that ye know not of". She lived on God's Word and Faith in Her Master.

Near 8:45 a. m. July 27, 1951 she very peacefully answered her Master's Call after a day and night of unusual brightness and smiles apparently enjoying pleasures unknown to those about her.

She leaves to mourn her departure her devoted mother, who gave of her strength so willing and unflinchingly as only mother-love can do to give comfort wherever posible; her sister, Mrs. Hazel Fullmer; one half-brother Clifford Caylor; and One half-sister, Emma Hansen; six nephews; seven nieces; also a number of uncles, and aunts, and counsins; besides a host of other relatives and friends. Her father preceded her in death February 20, 1945.

Her earthly pilgrimmage covered a period of 31 years 8 months and 3 days. May we find consolation in the knowledge that what The Lord doeth is well done. The Lord gave and He has taken-blessed be His Name.

Funeral services were held in The Bear Creek Church, Monday, July 30. at 2:00 p. m. by Elder N. A. Hockman, assisted by Bro. Myrl Flora; from Phil. 1:21 to a large concourse of friends and relatives. Hymns used 384-393-403. No. 422 at the house; and 430 at the grave. Her mortal remains were laid to rest in Lower Miami Cemetery, on State R. 4 southwest of Dayton, Ohio.

In the evening of July 17, 1951 several in the immediate neighborhood were desiring the enjoyment of bathing in the creek. Donald was one of that number and seemingly was having a very pleasant time, when suddenly Donald could not be found. In vain the search was made in the autos and in the surrounding grounds and the name of Donald resounded across the still waters but no answer. Already he had answered the call of the Master." As the Psalmist David, "He Leadeth Me Beside the Still Waters" and "Though I walk thru the Valley and Shadow of Death, Thou art with Me", all the efforts put forth to revive him were to no avail, and Donald fell Asleep In Jesus.

When wafted like a heaven - scented flower,
Its fragrance filling all the hallowed air,
My Lord shall send His answer to my prayer.

I cannot see the pearly gates unfold,
Nor glimpse the jeweled streets of shining gold,
As earthward starts the answer from up there;
Its flight I cannot trace, nor whence, nor where.

I know not how my Lord will bring about
Or grant—there seems no way to work it out;
But at His feet in confidence I bow
Until the answer comes, my Lord knows how.

Selected by Esther Frantz,
North Manchester, Indiana.

A PRAYER FOR OUR TIME

Dear Lord, in this dark troubled age
We need Thy helping hand,
We ask that Thou might be with us
Our guide to that bright, holy land.

Oh Lord, we pray that war may stop,
That men might cease to kill;
That peace could be with us once more-
But only if it be Thy will.

Lord, be with those who make our laws
And might they to Thee look,
May they make laws by which we can Continue teachings of Thy Holy Book.

And Lord, we pray whate'er the future holds
We may have strength from Thee,
Help us to bear the trials that come,
However hard they be.

And last, Dear Lord, our prayer is the same
As it has always been;
May we someday dwell where all is fair
And all is free from sin.

Flora, Indiana.

DENLINGER — Andrew Denlinger, son of Isaac and Dinnah Denlinger was born Nov. 11, 1873 near Dayton, Montgomery Co., Ohio, and departed this life at his home at Whittier, California, August 13, 1951 at the age of 77 years, 9 months and two days.

He was united in marriage with Bertha Whitehead on Nov. 28, 1895. To this union was born 8 children.

He, with his wife joined the church of their choice, the Old German Baptist Church, to which he lived faithful until the Lord called him to his long home.

The family lived on a farm near Dayton, Ohio until they moved to Whittier, Calif. in June , 1927, where he made his home most of the time since then.

In March, 1942 God saw fit to take his companion.

He was again united in marriage to Emma C. Filbrun in March, 1943.

In the winter of 1950-51 his health began to fail, and by the first of June they found the dreadful disease of cancer. On June 9, 1951 he remembered the teaching of the Apostle James and was anointed with oil, which was administered by the brethren and gave him much hope for eternal life. BRUBAKER—Sister Fannie B. Brubaker, daughter of Elder Joel and Mary Flora, was born in Franklin Co., Va., on Dec. 3, 1869. She departed this life at her daughter's home in Pitsburg, O., on Aug. 30, 1951, at the age of 81 years, 8 months and 27 days.

When she was 2 weeks old her mother passed away at the age of 19 years, leaving her and a twin sister, Nannie Rutrough, who passed away but two months ago at her home in Franklin Co. Va. They were cared for by relatives after their mother died until a step-mother came into the home.

On Nov. 5, 1891, she was united in marriage to Emory William Brubaker of Roanoke Co., Va. He passed away on Jan. 23, 1945. This union was blest with 5 children, all of whom survive. Also a foster daughter, Ida Flora was taken into the home at the age of 10 years. She remained in the home with the same parental care as their own children until she was 21 years of age, when she was united in marriage to David Lavy.

In the fall of 1911, they with their family moved from Roanoke Co., Va. to Ohio, locating on a farm northeast of Camden, where she resided until Dec. 5, 1950, when she with her two daughters, Lydia and Esther, moved to their new home in Pitsburg, Ohio, where she resided until passing on to eternity.

Early in life she united with the Old German Baptist Church, in which faith she remained faithful until the final summons. She was always in possession of that meek and quiet spirit, which we are taught in God's Word is in the sight of God, of great price.

In a former sickness, she had called for the Elders of the Church and received the sacred rites of anointing with oil in the name of the Lord, according to James 5:14. She had been in failing health for the past eight months, which illness became more serious as time passed on. On Thursday morning at the hour of 8:20 she quietly passed on to the great beyond. During all her sickness she was very patient, never complaining or wanting to make any trouble, but always of a loving disposition.

She leaves to mourn her departure, 2 sons and three daughters: Sister Ada Denlinger, Bro. Ezra, Bro. Joseph, Sisters, Lydia and Esther, who were in the home; 14 grandchildren; 10 great grand children; and the above mentioned Sister Ida Lavy and her children; besides a host of neices, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

We weep not as those that have no hope, for we feel that our loss will be her eternal gain.

The following was clipped from the Naval Base Journal at Jacksonville,

"The entire squadron felt a personal loss this week when Ralph A. Ulrey, A D E 1 was killed in an automobile accident. He had attended the NARTU picnic at Kingsley Lake and was returning to Jacksonville when the accident occured. The car left the road and Ulrey, who was driving, was pinned between the steering wheel and the top when the car hit a large tree.

One of the outstanding petty officers of the squadron, Ulrey was ever ready to do that extra work or last minute check to keep the squadron plane availability up to the desired level. Not only was his mechanical ability of the highest order, but he was also a capable and concientious instructor for less trained personnel in the squadron."

OBITUARIES

THE LOOM OF LIFE

"My life is but a weaving
Between my Lord and me;
He chooses all the colors
And works on steadily.

Oftimes He weaveth sorrow
And I, in blinded pride,
Forget He sees the upper,
And I the underside.

Not till the loom is silent,
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God unroll the fabric,
And show the Unknown Why.

The dark threads are as needful
In the weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned."

THANKFUL FOR

What am I most thankful for?
Well 'tis very hard to say
For there are so many blessings
Every single day.

I am thankful for the flowers
I am thankful for the trees
I am thankful for the birds
Yes and for the honey bees.

I am thankful for the fruits
I am thankful for the grain
Yes I am thankful
For the sunshine and the rain.

I am thankful for my home
And for my family dear
I am thankful for all loved ones
Be they far or near.

I am thankful for health
To do my tasks and duties all
I am thankful for all blessings
Be they great or small.

But best of all my dear Father
I am thankful for Thy love
And for the blest assurance
Of a home above.

New Paris, Indiana.

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and His apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a reunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

OBITUARIES

A CHRISTMAS THOUGHT

Mrs. Frank A. Beck

When Jesus was born in a stable—
A birthplace of humblest degree,
So that no one could say, "I am poorer,
More lacking in comforts, than He."

His mother in swaddling bands wrapped Him,
The wardrobe of One, the Divine,
That no one could say of His raiment,
"Christ's garments were better than mine."

His home and His comforts were borrowed—
No pillow for resting His head!
But He lived, and He suffered and sorrowed,
To give us true comforts instead.

In His glory, His wealth had been boundless!
He laid all those riches aside,
That we might have riches eternal,
And with Him forever abide.

THE BELLS ON CHRISTMAS DAY

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat,
Of peace on earth, good will to men!

And thought how, as the day had come;
The belfries of all Christendom
Had rolled along
The unbroken song,
Of peace on earth, good will to men!

And in despair, I bowed my head;
"There is no peace on earth," I said;
"For hate is strong
And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good will to men!"

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep
"God is not dead; nor does He sleep!
The wrong shall fail,
The right prevail,
With peace on earth, good will to men!"
